

DAILY REPORT

VOL. 109, NO. 250

MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1998

State's Biggest Jury Award

A Gwinnett jury award this month left all others in Georgia in the dust.

The $454 million in compensatory and punitive damages was a victory for investors who attacked Time Warner's management of Six Flags Over Georgia, saying it cost them money.

The seven winning lawyers were:

- Partners James E. Butler Jr. and George W. Fryhofer III and associate Cale H. Conley of Butler, Wooten, Overby, Pearson, Fryhofer & Daughtery in Columbus.

- Partners H. Lamar Mixson and Michael B. Terry and associate Nancy L. Johnson of Bondurant, Mixson & Elmore.

- Gerald Davidson of Andersen, Davidson &

James E. Butler Jr.

H. Lamar Mixson

Gerald Davidson

Tate of Lawrenceville.

Time Warner attorney Evan Chesler of Cravath, Swaine & Moore in New York said an appeal is possible.

—Ben Schmitt

	1	2	3
CASE	Six Flags Over Georgia v. Time Warner	Moseley v. GM	Bibbs v. Toyota
DESCRIPTION	Business; breach of fiduciary duty	Product liability	Product liability
WINNING FIRM	Butler, Wooten, Overby, Pearson, Fryhofer & Daughtery, Columbus; Bondurant, Mixson & Elmore; Andersen, Davidson & Tate, Lawrenceville	Butler, Wooten, Overby & Cheeley	Butler, Wooten, Overby & Cheeley
LOSING FIRM	Cravath, Swaine & Moore, New York; Alston & Bird; Chandler & Britt, Buford, Ga.	Kirkland & Ellis; King & Spalding	Long, Weinberg, Ansley & Wheeler
VERDICT	$454 million	$105.24 million	$46.45 million

Source: Daily Report files and research